Mechanics and theory of jury research (live demonstration)

James B. Stiff, Ph.D., President, Trial Analysts, Inc., College Station, Texas

TOPIC: Dr. Stiff will present material exploring how jurors process information during a trial presentation, especially how the presentation of the highly technical information common in intellectual property cases influences their decision making and their judgments regarding the credibility of witnesses.

Time & Location: Noon, August 27, 2004
The Belo Mansion
2101 Ross Avenue

This presentation includes one hour of CLE credit.

July's Speakers

Publishing Deals from Idea to Print

Mike Farris, Farris Literary Agency
Payne Harrison, New York Times Best-Selling Author
Cathryn Berryman, Jenkins & Gilchrist, P.C.

TOPIC: We assembled a stellar group of seasoned professionals who answered questions on how to get published. They gave us helpful hints on how to present an idea for publishing. They also identified legal pitfalls to avoid when inking your deal. If you would like to contact any of these speakers you may do so at the following email addresses:

Farris: Farris1@airmail.net
Harrison: Pharrison@munsch.com
Berryman: cberryman@jenkens.com
